ULUMBARRA FOUNDATION

The Ulumbarra Foundation is an independent charity dedicated to supporting Bendigo and regional performing arts organisations, participants and audiences.

We rely on funds from donors to support our purpose. Donations over $2 are tax deductible. Donors contributing over $500 are acknowledged on foyer donor boards and a plaque on a seat at Ulumbarra Theatre.

 $1000
 $2500
 OTHER AMOUNT $

By agreeing to donate you authorise BV&E to share your personal information with the Ulumbarra Foundation. A representative from the Ulumbarra Foundation will contact you prior to processing your donation.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Can I choose my seats?

Indicate your seating preference on your subscription form and we will do our best to seat you there where possible.

Can I sit with my friends?

If you subscribe and wish to sit with a group of friends, list their names on your form and send everyone's form in the same envelope. It is essential that we receive all forms together.

Is there a concession price?

Subscriber tickets are offered at a reduced price and no further discounts apply to the subscriber price.

Concession priced tickets offered in Season 2020 apply to pensioners, Health Care Card holders, Senior Card holders and full-time tertiary students.*

Student price tickets offered in Season 2020 apply to children aged 12 months and over including primary and secondary school students.*

* While concession and student prices are offered on Season 2020 shows, they may not be offered on other performances in our venues or those ticketed by gotix. Proof of entitlement of discount must be presented when asked.

Can I cancel my subscription?

You cannot cancel your subscription during the year. Subscription tickets can be transferred to another performance of the same event or given to friends or family.

Can I get a refund?

There is no refund or exchange on tickets except as provided for under the Live Performance Australia Ticketing Code of Practice.

Is my privacy protected?

We do need to collect some personal details including your name, address and contact phone number. But we never sell, loan or give away your information. We may send you things we think would interest you; however you can always opt out of our mailing lists.

Are The Capital and Ulumbarra Theatre accessible theatres?

Yes. If you require special seating due to hearing or vision impairment or lack of mobility, be sure to complete the access section on the subscription form.
